

DEFENCE AND SECURITY FORUM

Chief Security Officer

9th Annual Summit

Crowne Plaza

Brussels

LADY OLGA MAITLAND

‘CEO PERSPECTIVE ON SECURITY’

CEO ROLE

DUTY OF CARE

- Over and above accepted level of security risk
- Must not lack 'due care'
- At risk, people, assets.
- Preparation is KEY

TRIGGERS AND TRENDS 2015

Terrorism - Lethal

IS activity – Understand their dynamics

Spreading

Reprisals

ALGERIA

First Hand

BP Inquest In Amenas attack
Beheading Herve Gourdel

REGIONAL OUTLOOKS

LATIN AMERICA

Organised crime, social upheaval , terrorism
Some high level risk.

ASIA

Afghan terrorists spreading
Social upheaval, terrorism.

EUROPE

- Threats in Europe
- IS splinter groups –
 - Major attack
- or a statement Lee Rigby beheading
 - Ukraine
 - Turkey

Sub-Saharan Africa

Terrorism plus organised crime.

Violent and high risk

Nigeria

Kenya

South Africa

MENA

Syria – VERY SEVERE – Damascus better

Iraq – VERE SEVERE – Baghdad better.

Egypt – SEVERE –

Jordan – High alert

MENA cont.

- Libya – VERY SEVERE
- Tunisia – be alert
- Algeria – Algiers and main towns well policed.

EBOLA

- West Africa
- Economic consequences
- Impact on Companies
 - Next?

Transportation

- Aviation –
- Trains, buses.
- Transportation, cargo thefts.
- $23b in 2013 rising at 24% a year

Corporate and Social Responsibility

- Get it right – and they will protect you!
- A priority is a well thought out CSR programme.
- Don't cut corners or skimp....
- Be generous – and all embracing.

CONCLUSION

- Ceo – Duty of Care....
- People, assets....
- Plan, prepare, research, train and drill staff
- Off duty – and on duty.
- Or face the BP consequences.....

Defence and Security Forum

Lady Olga Maitland,
President and Founder

21 Cloudesley Street, London, N1 0HX

Olga.maitland@virgin.net

Tel. +44 7778 917133

